

---

Suzanne Orenstein

Process Consultant and Facilitator Private Practice Practitioner Consultants

Suzanne Orenstein works as a partner and consultant with the Consensus Building Institute. She has practiced as a public policy mediator and facilitator for environmental and other public disputes for over twenty years. She has mediated over 40 major cases, conducted more than fifty training courses, and managed rosters of mediators. Her work has included facilitation of collaborative processes involving complex and controversial public issues and diverse constituencies, including tribes. Ms. Orenstein is the former Vice President of RESOLVE, a national public policy dispute resolution organization, and is currently in private practice in Massachusetts.

